COATINGS AND POLYMER PROGRAMS

Four short courses for specialists interested in coatings and polymers will be presented by the Rheology and Coatings Laboratory at Kent State University during May and June. These courses will be on the subjects of Dispersion, Rheology, Adhesion and Characterization.

The titles and dates for the courses are as follows:

“Coatings and Polymer Characterization”, May 12–16, 1980

“Dispersion of Pigments and Resins in Fluid Media”, May 19–23, 1980

“Adhesion Principles and Practice for Coatings and Polymer Scientists”,
June 16–20, 1980

“Applied Rheology for Industrial Chemists”, June 23–27, 1980.

Additional information on these programs can be obtained by contacting Carl J. Knauss, Chemistry Department, Kent State University, Kent, Ohio 44242.
