The ninth in a series of conferences sponsored every 4–5 years by the USDA Forest Service, Forest Products Laboratory and Forest Products Society, designed to provide a comprehensive update of the science and technology of wood adhesives and bonded wood products. The conferences will be held in conjunction with ASTM International D 14.30 Wood Adhesives Subcommittee on October 1, 2009.

Information transfer during the 3-day conference will take place via plenary, technical and poster presentations and tabletop exhibits on the following subject areas:

- Formaldehyde and environmental issues
- Biobased adhesives
- Resin chemistry
- Analytical methods
- Composites
- Engineered wood structures
- Modeling
- Other topics

This conference is sponsored by the USDA Forest Service, Forest Products Laboratory and Forest Products Society. To submit a formal or poster abstract electronically or for the most recent information on the program, please visit FPS online at:

Call for Papers, The Adhesion Society, Inc., 33rd Annual Meeting, Hilton Daytona Beach, Daytona Beach, Florida, February 21–24, 2010.

The Adhesion Society, founded in 1978, is an international, non-profit, interdisciplinary, professional association, open to scientists, engineers and others whose interests include the broad field of adhesion and all its aspects. Shown below are events that are part of the annual meeting.

- A two-day Short Course, “Adhesion Science and Technology”, February 19 and 20, 2010, is prior to the Annual Meeting, at the same location.
- An Exhibition of equipment and literature relating to adhesion science will be held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting, February 15–17, 2010.
- A Poster Session, which covers all topics related to adhesion science, will be an integral part of the meeting.

Submission of Short Abstracts: Authors wishing to present a paper or poster should submit short abstracts of 150–250 words, electronically, on The Adhesion Society website by September 11, 2009. Authors will be informed of the status of their papers by October 15, 2009.
