

Symposium Announcement

A two-day symposium entitled "The Role of the Electrostatic Potential in Chemistry" will be held on March 26-27, 1980 during the national meeting of the American Chemical Society in Houston, Texas. The symposium will deal with various properties of the electrostatic potential, including its application to predicting and interpreting the reactive behavior of molecules, and its fundamental relationships to other atomic and molecular properties, such as energies. For further information, please contact

Dr. Peter Politzer
Department of Chemistry
University of New Orleans
New Orleans, Louisiana, 70122, USA