

ANNOUNCEMENTAdvanced Course
The Surgical Pathology of Neoplastic Diseases
6–10 May 1996

The Department of Pathology of Memorial Hospital for Cancer and Allied Diseases, New York City, will present an advanced course on the Surgical Pathology of Neoplastic Diseases, 6–10 May 1996. The program will consist of a series of lectures, workshops and optional slide sessions on neoplastic disease of interest to the experienced surgical pathologist.

In view of the limited enrollment, applications should be submitted as soon as possible with a fee of $750. The fee is refundable, less a $50 administrative charge, if cancellation is made in writing before 1 April 1996. No refund will be issued after this date. A full refund will be issued in the event of cancellation of the course.

Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to sponsor Continuing Medical Education for Physicians. This continuing medical education activity meets the criteria for 50 credit hours in category I of the Physician's Recognition Award of the American Medical Association.
