

ANNOUNCEMENT

18–23 September 1999 – Barcelona, Spain
(Palau de Congressos, Av. Maria Cristina, s/n)
17th European Congress of Pathology and XIX Spanish Congress of Pathology

The Organizing Committee offers a comprehensive and timely scientific programme presented by world experts in pathology. Special emphasis will be given to topics dealing with the main challenges facing pathology at the turn of the century and the advent of the year 2000. Also planned are interesting social events and sightseeing opportunities.

Barcelona is a cosmopolitan city full of artistic and historical attractions and surrounded by splendid Mediterranean beaches. It is a city in which Roman stones and medieval monuments blend in unique harmony with fantastic works of modern art and impressive creations for the third millennium.
