

Inspect Munitions Storage Facilities

55B40C02 VG#1

		OLD MSIR
	T C E	MAGAZNESITE INSPECTION REPORT         Date
LOCATION FID TYPE (igloo, outside, etc) EARTH		RI Date Sept 12, 1979 Inspector's Name SFC Smith, John J.
QD CLASS EXPLOSIVE LIMIT ACTUAL EXPLOSIVE WT IN LOCAT
CONDITION	CHECK	REMARKS

			NEW MSIR
	MAGAZINE/SIT	★ Date 5 ept 12, 1979 ★ Inspector's Name
7	TYPE (igloo, outside, etc)	SFC Smith, John J.
Ī	QD CLASS
	EXPLOSIVE LIMIT 250.0001	bs
	ACTUAL EXPLOSIVE WT IN LOCA
	CONDITION	CHECK	REMARKS

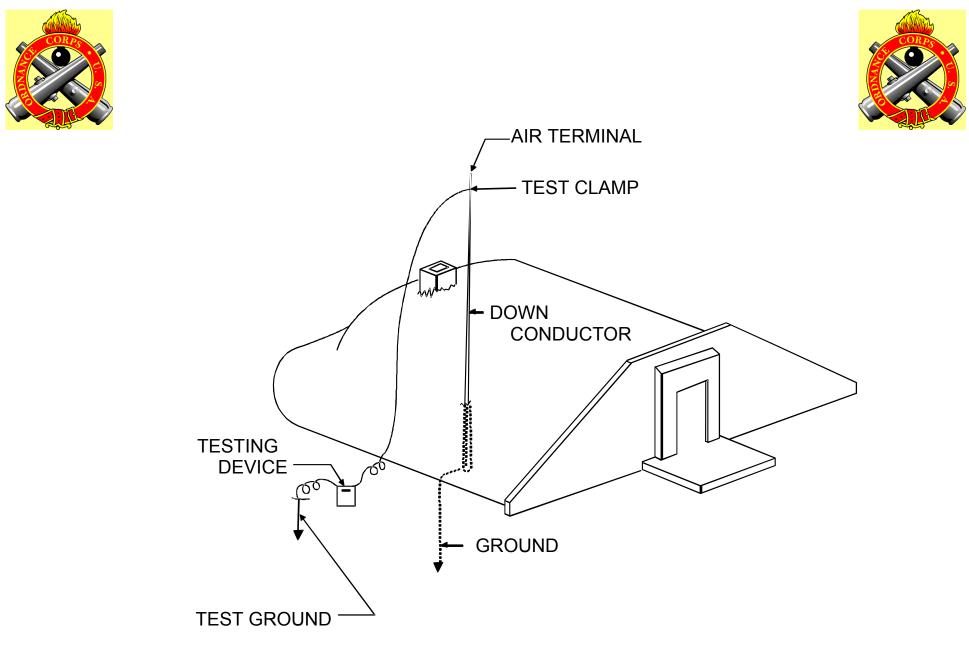

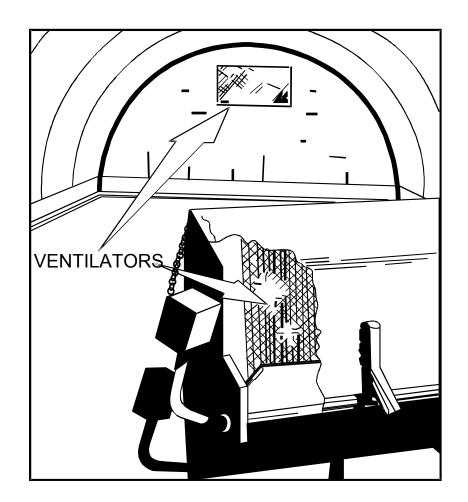

WWW.SURVIVALEBOOKS.COM

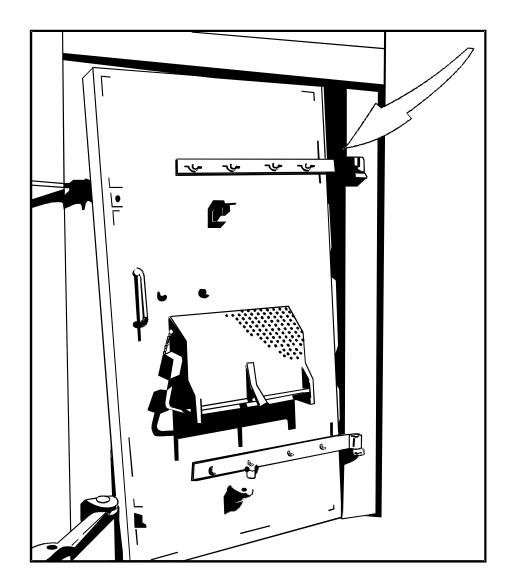

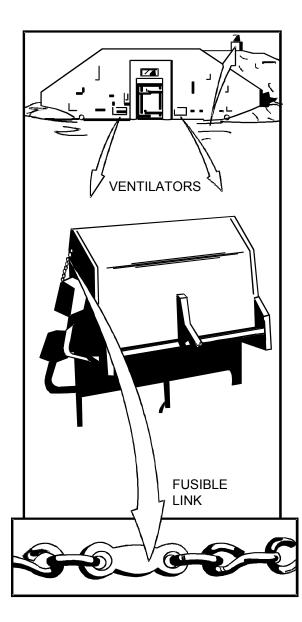

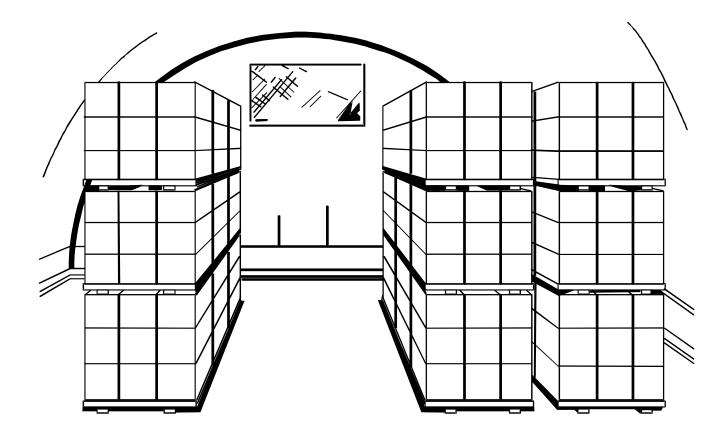

<ul> <li>Storage And States and S</li></ul>
<ul> <li>EXPLOSATIVE PLACARD)</li> <li>(MAGAZINE PLACARD)</li> <li>GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS</li> <li>1 Always handle explosives and ammunition carefully.</li> <li>2 Remove dirt, grit, and foreign materials from containers and ammunition before placing in storage.</li> <li>3 Do not store explosives and ammunition in damaged containers.</li> <li>4 Keep all containers in magazine effectively closed so that the contents cannot be handled, examined, or removed.</li> <li>5 Store each lot separately. Make the stacks stable. Provide for a free circulation and ammunition off the floor by dunnage.</li> <li>6 Do not open, repair, pack or repack containers in magazine.</li> <li>8 Absolute cleanliness and order must be maintained.</li> <li>9 Use only approved electric lights, lanterns or flashlights in magazines.</li> <li>10 Do not smoke, or bring matches into magazine.</li> <li>12 Keep magazine spark tight, with ventilators well screened, and no openings around doors or foundations.</li> <li>13 Keep doors locked when vehicle magazine is unattended.</li> <li>Close doors when vehicle is approaching platform unless vehicle is equipped with spark arrestor on exhaust.</li> <li>14 Keep the 50 foot cleared space around above ground magazines free from combustible material.</li> <li>15 Two or more doors, when available, must be open when personnel are working in a magazine containing explosives or ammunition.</li> <li>a Post conspicuously one or more copies of these rules in</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS</li> <li>1 Always handle explosives and ammunition carefully.</li> <li>2 Remove dirt, grit, and foreign materials from containers and ammunition before placing in storage.</li> <li>3 Do not store explosives and ammunition in damaged containers.</li> <li>4 Keep all containers in magazine effectively closed so that the contents cannot be handled, examined, or removed.</li> <li>5 Store each lot separately. Make the stacks stable.</li> <li>Provide for a free circulation and ammunition off the floor by dunnage.</li> <li>6 Do not open, repair, pack or repack containers in or within 75 feet of magazine except as permitted by TM 9-1300-206.</li> <li>7 Do not keep empty containers, tools, or other materials in magazine.</li> <li>8 Absolute cleanliness and order must be maintained.</li> <li>9 Use only approved electric lights, lanterns or flashlights in magazines</li> <li>10 Do not smoke, or bring matches into magazine.</li> <li>11 Do not allow unauthorized persons in or near magazine.</li> <li>12 Keep magazine spark tight, with ventilators well screened, and no openings around doors or foundations.</li> <li>13 Keep doors locked when vehicle magazine is unattended.</li> <li>Close doors when vehicle is approaching platform unless vehicle is equipped with spark arrestor on exhaust.</li> <li>14 Keep the 50 foot cleared space around above ground magazines free from combustible material.</li> <li>15 Two or more doors, when available, must be open when personnel are working in a magazine containing explosives or ammunition.</li> <li>16 Post conspicuously one or more copies of these rules in</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>2 Remove dirt, grit, and foreign materials from containers and ammunition before placing in storage.</li> <li>3 Do not store explosives and ammunition in damaged containers.</li> <li>4 Keep all containers in magazine effectively closed so that the contents cannot be handled, examined, or removed.</li> <li>5 Store each lot separately. Make the stacks stable.</li> <li>Provide for a free circulation and ammunition off the floor by dunnage.</li> <li>6 Do not open, repair, pack or repack containers in or within 75 feet of magazine except as permitted by TM 9-1300-206.</li> <li>7 Do not keep empty containers, tools, or other materials in magazine.</li> <li>8 Absolute cleanliness and order must be maintained.</li> <li>9 Use only approved electric lights, lanterns or flashlights in magazines</li> <li>10 Do not smoke, or bring matches into magazine.</li> <li>11 Zheep magazine spark tight, with ventilators well screened, and no openings around doors or foundations.</li> <li>13 Keep doors locked when vehicle magazine is unattended.</li> <li>Close doors when vehicle is approaching platform unless vehicle is equipped with spark arrestor on exhaust.</li> <li>14 Keep the 50 foot cleared space around above ground magazines free from combustible material.</li> <li>15 Two or more doors, when available, must be open when personnel are working in a magazine containing explosives or ammunition.</li> <li>16 Post conspicuously one or more copies of these rules in</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>the contents cannot be handled, examined, or removed.</li> <li>5 Store each lot separately. Make the stacks stable.</li> <li>Provide for a free circulation and ammunition off the floor by dunnage.</li> <li>6 Do not open, repair, pack or repack containers in or within 75 feet of magazine except as permitted by TM 9-1300-206.</li> <li>7 Do not keep empty containers, tools, or other materials in magazine.</li> <li>8 Absolute cleanliness and order must be maintained.</li> <li>9 Use only approved electric lights, lanterns or flashlights in magazines</li> <li>10 Do not smoke, or bring matches into magazine.</li> <li>11 Do not allow unauthorized persons in or near magazine.</li> <li>12 Keep magazine spark tight, with ventilators well screened, and no openings around doors or foundations.</li> <li>13 Keep doors locked when vehicle magazine is unattended.</li> <li>Close doors when vehicle is approaching platform unless vehicle is equipped with spark arrestor on exhaust.</li> <li>14 Keep the 50 foot cleared space around above ground magazines free from combustible material.</li> <li>15 Two or more doors, when available, must be open when personnel are working in a magazine containing explosives or ammunition.</li> <li>16 Post conspicuously one or more copies of these rules in</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>within 75 feet of magazine except as permitted by TM 9-1300-206.</li> <li>7 Do not keep empty containers, tools, or other materials in magazine.</li> <li>8 Absolute cleanliness and order must be maintained.</li> <li>9 Use only approved electric lights, lanterns or flashlights in magazines</li> <li>10 Do not smoke, or bring matches into magazine.</li> <li>11 Do not allow unauthorized persons in or near magazine.</li> <li>12 Keep magazine spark tight, with ventilators well screened, and no openings around doors or foundations.</li> <li>13 Keep doors locked when vehicle magazine is unattended.</li> <li>Close doors when vehicle is approaching platform unless vehicle is equipped with spark arrestor on exhaust.</li> <li>14 Keep the 50 foot cleared space around above ground magazines free from combustible material.</li> <li>15 Two or more doors, when available, must be open when personnel are working in a magazine containing explosives or ammunition.</li> <li>16 Post conspicuously one or more copies of these rules in</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>8 Absolute cleanliness and order must be maintained.</li> <li>9 Use only approved electric lights, lanterns or flashlights in magazines</li> <li>10 Do not smoke, or bring matches into magazine.</li> <li>11 Do not allow unauthorized persons in or near magazine.</li> <li>12 Keep magazine spark tight, with ventilators well screened, and no openings around doors or foundations.</li> <li>13 Keep doors locked when vehicle magazine is unattended.</li> <li>Close doors when vehicle is approaching platform unless vehicle is equipped with spark arrestor on exhaust.</li> <li>14 Keep the 50 foot cleared space around above ground magazines free from combustible material.</li> <li>15 Two or more doors, when available, must be open when personnel are working in a magazine containing explosives or ammunition.</li> <li>16 Post conspicuously one or more copies of these rules in</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>12 Keep magazine spark tight, with ventilators well screened, and no openings around doors or foundations.</li> <li>13 Keep doors locked when vehicle magazine is unattended.</li> <li>Close doors when vehicle is approaching platform unless vehicle is equipped with spark arrestor on exhaust.</li> <li>14 Keep the 50 foot cleared space around above ground magazines free from combustible material.</li> <li>15 Two or more doors, when available, must be open when personnel are working in a magazine containing explosives or ammunition.</li> <li>16 Post conspicuously one or more copies of these rules in</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>14 Keep the 50 foot cleared space around above ground magazines free from combustible material.</li> <li>15 Two or more doors, when available, must be open when personnel are working in a magazine containing explosives or ammunition.</li> <li>16 Post conspicuously one or more copies of these rules in</li> </ul>
17 See TM 9-1300-206 for detailed instructions.
DA LABEL 85

WWW.SURVIVALEBOOKS.COM

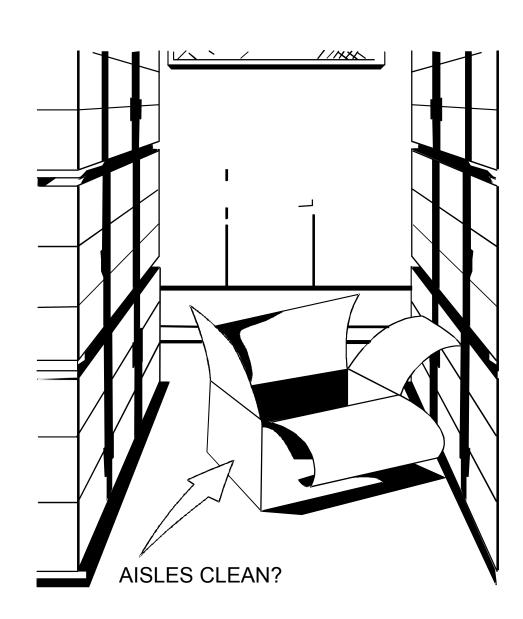

STORAGE DRAWING

1. DODIC	2. NSN	3. LOT NO.		4. LOCATION	В.	D.
5. DESCRIPTION		•		Α.	C.	E.
6. DATE	7. DOCUMENT NO.	8. ACTION/PURPOSE	9. Q	UANTITY	10. BALANCE	11. PRINTED NAME
			A. GAIN	B. LOSS
		MAGAZINE
For use of this	D20-R, AUG 89 form, see AR 710-2; the proponent ag
	NONM	ENCLATURE			A Contraction of the second se
	FACINO	G UP AND

SUMMARY

55B40C02 VG#13