To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, WILLIAM TWEEDDALE, of Brooklyn, in the county of Kings and State of New York, have invented a new and original Design for a Fountain, of which the following is a specification:

The nature of my design is fully represented in the accompanying print of a wood-engraving, to which reference is made.

Above the upper bowl A is a center-piece, formed of the leaves B C, bearing the flower-shaped top D and jet-piece E. The edge of the basin is ornamented with leaf-points F and J, and the under side with the leaves H, scrolls I, flowers G, bead K, shields L, and flowers M. The column which supports the upper basin has stays or braces N, having leaf-ornamentation O and Q; also, the scales R on the face and flower-shaped side ornaments P and between these braces the surface is ornamented with the double-pointed raised figures S, T, and U. The principal basin has the border of the top ornamented with the leaves V, oval figures W, and the figures X. The under side of the basin has the leaves Y Z, lyre-shaped figures a, b, and d, and the oval bosses e. The standard for the lower basin has a polygonal base in two vertical sections, f, and two tapered sections, g h, surmounted by a circular top, i, and ornamented by the points j and beads k. Above the base it is fluted, and has the leaves l, oval bosses m n, and curved ribs p; and above the fluted portion it has shields r, plain ribs s, and a bead-molding, t. The pedestal has the paneled figure A', bordered by the ornamental corner-posts C', beaded top molding D', and base-molding E' on some of its sides, and other sides have the scroll-bracket F', ornamented by the figurehead G', rosette H', leaves l' and J', and the figures K'.
