UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE.

EMIL CRISAND, OF NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT, ASSIGNOR TO HENRY ST. JOHN, OF SAME PLACE.

DESIGN FOR EMBROIDERY-PATTERN.

Specification forming part of Design No. 9,349, dated June 27, 1876; application filed May 8, 1876. [Term of Patent 3½ years.]

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, EMIL CRISAND, of New Haven, in the county of New Haven and State of Connecticut, have invented a new Design for Embroidery-Pattern; and I do hereby declare the following, when taken in connection with the accompanying drawings, to be a full, clear, and exact description of the same, and which said drawings constitute part of this specification, and represent a face view.

This invention relates to a design for embroidery-pattern with special reference to perforated board, the object being to indicate on the surface of the board the stitches to be taken in the working of the pattern.

It consists in the peculiar form and configuration of the motto, as shown in the accompanying illustration, and hereinafter described.

The motto which constitutes the base of the design is "Should Auld Acquaintance be Forgot." This is arranged with the words "Should" above, and "be forgot" below, the words "Auld Acquaintance."

Branches of forget-me-nots are interspersed as emblems, the principal feature of the design being the capitals.

The arrangement of the words may be varied, the form of the said capitals being clearly defined in the accompanying illustration.

The design for embroidery-pattern, consisting of the motto "Should Auld Acquaintance be Forgot" in form as described, and shown in the accompanying illustration.

E. CRISAND.
