TOP SECRET SUEDE

22 Mar 52 cis

FAR EAST

Communist prise	oners report no plague o	or cholera in their unit:
21 Mar 52	Communist No	interrogation of 80 prisoners fugees, some of whom were in orth Korea as recently as 10 March they knew of no plague or cholera and non-commiss	Captured Communist so	oldiers reported that unit political were the source of claims that the
however, equals	The incidence last year's epidemic con	of typhus, typhoid and smallpox, nditions,
	Comment T	he outbreak of disease in epidemic constant possibili however, of the r	g Communist troops and ty. There is no convince ecurrence of epidemics	d civilians in North Korea is a cing evidence from any source, similar to those experienced by constant possibili however, of the r	g Communist troops and ty. There is no convince ecurrence of epidemics	d civilians in North Korea is a cing evidence from any source,
constant possibili however, of the r	g Communist troops and ty. There is no convince ecurrence of epidemics	d civilians in North Korea is a cing evidence from any source, constant possibili	g Communist troops and ty. There is no convince ecurrence of epidemics	d civilians in North Korea is a cing evidence from any source,

- 3 -

TOP SECRET SUEDE

APPROVED FOR RELEASE DATE: 22-Mar-2010