President Kennedy called President Eisenhower, asking him if he would see on Saturday morning the following individuals to discuss the Berlin situation and plans: Secretary McNamara, General Lemnitzer, Allen Dulles. They discussed times - the President (Eisenhower) said he would, and set it up for 8:30 at the farm (details to be worked out by Colonel Schulz with General Lemnitzer's aide). Kennedy said no publicity.

Kennedy also said he would like to talk to DDE on phone after.
