1. Would you please be good enough to make a telephone call for me. I will certainly reimburse you when next we meet. It is to Lord Ronald Graham on the Isle of Arran in Scotland. His telephone number is SHISKINE 224 rpt SHISKINE 224. Please tell him that we have received his letter of 9 November and that we will be delighted to have them both stay at the Residence during the reunion here in May. Assure him that they will be our only guests. Please also tell him that I have written two long letters over this past summer, one to Jamaica and one to Scotland, both of which assure them of our wholehearted desire to have them be with us in Tehran. I have no idea why neither letter got through. Also please convey our fondest. Thanks very much.
2. This may seem like rather long-range planning, but could Cynthia and I stay with you January 27 and January 28? Our schedule calls for us to leave London on the 29th, I believe. If it is not convenient, please just say so. All the best.
