Dear Sirs

DINERS CLUB SA (PTY) LIMITED / MR A & MRS V SINGH : CASE NO. 2000/3156

- As you are aware we lodged the Letter of Request signed by Judgo Levinsohn with the Senior Master of the Royal Courts of Justice and brought application that he give an Order in terms of the English 1975 Act giving the Judge the status of an examiner in terms of English Lew.
- We would advise that Diners Club International Service Centre ("DCISC") with whom various of the Plaintiff's expert witnesses are employed, has brought application to Master Furner, Queens Bench Division, to protect the confidentiality of as yet unspecified information in accordance with English Law. This, of course, will not affect the taking of the evidence on commission from 3 to 14 March 2003 save to the extent that the English Courts afford DCISC some relief in relation to the protection of information which they accept as being confidential and which ought not to be in the public domain. You will appreciate that DCISC is particularly mindful of protecting its confidential information having regard to your clients' attempt to gain access to the various computers sto, which led to the application in September 2002.

- We do not, at present, know what information they wish to protect. We are communicating with DCISC's solicitors in London and are discussing the matter with them. The application is due to be heard on 20 February 2003 and we have instructed solicitors to act on our client's behalf thereat.
- The purpose of this letter is to give you notice thereof should you wish to appoint solicitors/barrieres in order to attend the hearing before Master Turner on 20 February 2003.

Yours faithfully

BOWES & THRMED AND
