Defendant.

If this case were to go to trial, the Government would prove the following facts beyond a reasonable doubt:

1. On multiple occasions between 1980 and 1985, Yossi Yagur, an agent of the Israeli Government, asked Ben-Ami Kadish to obtain classified documents relating to the U.S. military, including some relating to U.S. missile defense systems.

2. Kadish obtained the classified documents from the library of the United States Army's Picatinny Arsenal and supplied them to Yagur.

3. Kadish did not ask for, nor did he receive, anything of value for the classified documents. Kadish provided the documents for the benefit of Israel.
