REPLY TO ATTENTION OF

NOV 0 2 2001

U.S. Army Crime Records Center (F01-2236)

Mr. John Young CRYPTOME 251 West 89th Street, Suite 6E New York, New York 10024

Dear Mr. Young:

This is in response to your request for release of information from the files of the U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command (USACIDC). Your request was received on October 25, 2001. The attached documents were referred by U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command.

The marked paragraph(s) of this letter provide explanation concerning your request:

The enclosed documents, 73-MPR007-6711S-7J, responsive to your request are a part of a system of records exempt from the mandatory access provisions of the Privacy Act (PA) and the mandatory disclosure provisions of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). The names of law enforcement personnel, as well as names, social security numbers, and other personal items of information pertaining to third parties may have been withheld. The removal of this information constitutes a partial denial pursuant to Title 5, USC, Section 552a, Exemption (j)(2) of the PA and Title 5, USC, Section 552, Exemptions (b)(6) and (b)(7)(C) of the FOIA, because release could violate the personal privacy of other individuals mentioned in the report(s). Exemption (b)(2) applies to withholding of the identification numbers of special agents. (See attached appeal instructions.)
Portions of the report(s) did not originate with this agency. The USACIDC is not the release authority for the documents in question. Your request and the documents have been referred to the (government agency or organization) for release determination and a direct reply to you.
Portions of the report(s) originated with a civilian agency. The USACIDC is not the release authority for these documents. You may wish to write to the (civilian agency or organization) for that information.
Coordination is being conducted with our field element(s) to obtain additional information responsive to your request. Upon receipt of any additional information you will be provided with a follow-up response.
The documents that were enclosed with your request have been reviewed and are returned for your use in resolving the issue with the subject of your inquiry. The names of law enforcement personnel, as well as names, social security numbers, and other personal items of information pertaining to third parties have been withheld pursuant to The Privacy Act, Title 5, USC, Section 552a, Exemption (j)(2), and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), Title 5, USC, Section 552, Exemptions (b)(6) and (b)(7)(C). Exemption (b)(2) of the FOIA applies to withholding of the identification numbers of special agents. You may release a copy of the report(s) to the subject of your inquiry.
A copy of this letter was provided to the U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command, (referral #).

Other:
Questions regarding this action should be addressed in writing to the address shown on the letterhead.
I trust this will be of assistance to you.
Sincerely,
Phillip J. McGuire

Director, Crime Records Center

DENIAL APPEAL RIGHTS

On occasion, we deny release of a record pending receipt of disciplinary or administrative action. In some cases we deny records release pending a review of the record for thoroughness and legal sufficiency. We deny release of records of active investigations and we remove portions of records that identify our investigative and/or law enforcement personnel and third parties so as to protect their privacy.

"No record" responses and partial or full denial responses are made on behalf of the Commanding General, U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command (USACIDC), who is the Access and Amendment Refusal Authority for USACIDC records under the Privacy Act and the Initial Denial Authority for USACIDC records under the Freedom of Information Act and may be appealed to the Secretary of the Army. If you decide to do so, you should state the basis for your disagreement with the response and you should provide justification for an additional administrative search to be conducted or reconsideration of the denial. An appeal may not serve as a request for additional or new information. An appeal only addresses information denied in this response. Your appeal is to be made to this center to the below listed address for forwarding, as appropriate to the Secretary of the Army, Office of General Counsel.
