1. In order to protect personally identifiable information and other sensitive personal data and pursuant to the general supervisory authority of the Court under the Rules for Courts-Martial, and regulations of the Department of the Army, it is hereby ORDERED:

a. PURPOSE. The purpose of this Protective Order is to safeguard, and prevent the unauthorized disclosure or dissemination of, personally identifiable information and other sensitive personal data. The terms of this Order may be modified by further order of this Court. This Order is not intended to impede the Defense's ability to represent the Accused.

b. APPLICABILITY. This Protective Order applies to all information provided to, or otherwise obtained by, any party during these proceedings, both prior to and subsequent to the date of this Order. The following persons are subject to the terms of this Order: the Accused; all Defense Counsel (civilian and military) and support staff and assistants working on behalf of Defense Counsel; members of the Defense team; all Trial Counsel and support staff and assistants working on behalf of Trial Counsel; all other counsel involved in this case, and support staff and assistants working on their behalf; security officers; all Court personnel; and all other individuals who receive access to, or are otherwise in possession of, information provided in connection with this case. The terms of this Order shall apply to all pre-trial, post-trial, and appellate aspects of this case, as supplemented by the requirements of the Rules for Courts-Martial and the Military Rules of Evidence. This order supersedes all previous protective orders issued in this case, except for this Court's 14 January 2016 Protective Order for Classified Information.

c. DEFINITIONS. The following definitions apply to this Protective Order:

(1) Personally Identifiable Information: Social Security Numbers, Names of Minor Children, Dates of Birth, Financial Account Numbers, and Home Addresses.

(2) Sensitive Personal Data: All personal sensitive information including personal identifying numbers, medical records, individual financial information, employment history, information regarding an individual's cooperation with the government, and national security information.

d. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE. Direct or indirect unauthorized disclosure, or dissemination of personally identifiable information or other sensitive personal data is prohibited. All parties have a responsibility to safeguard personally identifiable information and other sensitive personal data in their possession and to prevent its theft, loss, or compromise.

(1) Persons subject to this Protective Order are obligated by law, regulation, and the terms of this Order not to disclose or disseminate any personally identifiable information or other sensitive personal data in an unauthorized manner or to an unauthorized recipient.

(2) Any unauthorized disclosure, or dissemination of personally identifiable information or other sensitive personal data information may violate the United States criminal code, the Uniform Code of Military Justice, and various Army Regulations. Any violation of the terms of this Order will immediately be brought to the attention of the Military Judge and otherwise reported in accordance with Army Regulations.

e. DURATION. This Protective Order shall remain in effect until superseded or amended by the Military Judge. The provisions of this Order apply during the time persons subject to the Order are granted access to classified information and at all times thereafter consistent with their obligations pursuant to applicable statutes, orders, and regulations. Nothing contained in this Order shall be construed as a modification of any additional statutory or regulatory requirements for handling of Government information and documents. Nothing contained in this Order shall be construed as a waiver of any right of the Accused.

ORDERED, this ____th day of May 2016.
