

Congress and the President

MICROMODULE

Kevin Kuczynski - April 9, 2019

Description

Includes discussion pertaining to the Congress, focusing on legislative and enumerated powers and the lawmaking process, and the President, focusing on executive power and the commander in chief and foreign affairs powers.

Outcomes

remember and understand

Students will be able to explain why the presidential powers discussed in this lesson are relevant to cyber policy.

remember and understand

Students will be able to explain the executive power of the president, and be able to describe the essential elements of the president's commander in chief and foreign affairs powers.

remember and understand

Students will be able to explain how a bill becomes law, and how the president may veto a bill.

remember and understand

Students will be able to explain why the congressional powers discussed in this lesson are relevant to u.s cyber policy

remember and understand

Students will be able to explain the legislative power of the congress, and identify powers enumerated in the constitution that are relevant the congressional role in u.s cyber policy.

remember and understand

Students will be able to explain the role of an appropriations bill and the congressional “power of the purse.”