Third system of musical notation, starting with a piano (p) dynamic and a fermata, followed by a forte (f) dynamic section.

Fourth system of musical notation, featuring a piano (pp) dynamic and a decrescendo (dim.) marking.

Fifth system of musical notation, featuring a piano (pp) dynamic and a melodic line in the left hand.

Sixth system of musical notation, featuring a piano (pp) dynamic and a melodic line in the left hand.

Après un silence dont la durée devra représenter la valeur d'environ 8 ou 9 mesures, on passera, sans autre interruption, à la «Scène de la Crèche.»

Nach einer Fermate, deren Länge ungefähr 8 bis 9 Takte Pausen beträgt, folgt ohne weitere Unterbrechung die „Scene an der Krippe.“

After a Fermata which extends over about 8 to 9 bars rest, the "Scene at the Manger" follows without further interruption.

* S'il n'y a pas de salle assez voisine de l'orchestre, et si cet ouvrage est exécuté dans un théâtre, les Choristes étant placées derrière la Scène, on baissera ici une toile de fond devant elles: Le rideau devra être baissé jusqu'à la hauteur de leur tête dès le commencement du morceau; de manière à ce qu'en le laissant tomber tout-à-fait, il serve immédiatement de sourdine. En outre, les Choristes devront faire subitement volte-face et chanter ces cinq dernières mesures en tournant le dos à la salle. (Sourdine vocale.) Note de H. Berlioz.

Sollte bei einer Aufführung im Theater kein Zimmer in der Nähe des Orchesters vorhanden sein, so haben sich die Choristen im Hintergrunde hinter einem Vorhange aufzustellen. Von Anfang dieser Nummer an wird derselbe nur bis zur Kopfhöhe, hier aber ganz herabgelassen. Überdies müssen die Choristen sich hier rasch umkehren und dem Publikum den Rücken wendend diese letzten fünf Takte singen. (Dämpfung der Singstimmen.)

When performed in a theatre, where there should not happen to be a room sufficiently near the orchestra, the Choristers singing behind the scene, must stand behind a curtain. At the beginning of this part the curtain must be lowered to the heads of the singers; so however, that when lowered entirely the curtain shall serve as a sordine. In singing these five last bars, the Choristers must turn their backs quickly to the audience. (Voices damped.)

Trio for two Flutes and a Harp.

Performed by the young Ishmaelites.

Allegro moderato. (♩ = 72.)

Andante espressivo. (♩ = 42.)

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together, and a few rests. The lower staff is in bass clef and provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. A dynamic marking of mf is placed above the first measure of the bass staff.

The second system continues the musical piece. It features similar rhythmic patterns and melodic development in both staves. The mf dynamic marking is present at the beginning of the system.

The third system shows a change in the texture of the bass line, with more sustained chords and a more active upper staff. The mf dynamic marking is still present.

The fourth system features a more complex and flowing melodic line in the upper staff, while the bass line continues with a steady accompaniment. The mf dynamic marking is present.

The fifth system is marked with poco f in the upper staff. The music becomes slightly louder and more intense. The upper staff has a more active melodic line, and the bass line provides a strong harmonic support.

The sixth system begins with the instruction Un poco rit. (Un poco ritardando) and later returns to a tempo. The music slows down slightly before returning to its original tempo. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is present in the lower staff.

First system of musical notation, measures 1-3. The right hand features a melodic line with slurs and ties, while the left hand provides a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes.

Second system of musical notation, measures 4-6. The right hand continues the melodic development with slurs and ties, and the left hand maintains the eighth-note accompaniment.

Third system of musical notation, measures 7-9. The right hand has a melodic line with slurs and ties. The left hand features a series of chords. A dim. (diminuendo) marking is present in the right hand.

Fourth system of musical notation, measures 10-12. The right hand has a melodic line with slurs and ties. The left hand features a series of chords. A p (piano) marking is present in the right hand, and a cresc. (crescendo) marking is present in the left hand.

Fifth system of musical notation, measures 13-15. The right hand has a melodic line with slurs and ties. The left hand features a series of chords. A cresc. (crescendo) marking is present in the left hand.

Allegro vivo. (♩=144.)

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 2/4. The music begins with a dynamic marking of mf (mezzo-forte). The first measure contains a quarter rest in the upper staff and a quarter note in the lower staff. The second measure has a quarter note in the upper staff and a quarter note in the lower staff. The third and fourth measures feature a complex rhythmic pattern with eighth and sixteenth notes in the upper staff and quarter notes in the lower staff.

The second system continues the piece with two staves. The upper staff features a series of sixteenth-note chords, while the lower staff plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The dynamics are consistent with the previous system.

The third system shows two staves. The upper staff has a melodic line with eighth notes and some slurs. The lower staff provides harmonic support with quarter notes. A first ending bracket labeled '1.' spans measures 11 and 12, leading to a second ending marked '2.' which concludes with a p (piano) dynamic.

The fourth system consists of two staves. The upper staff has a melodic line with slurs and ties, while the lower staff continues with a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes.

The fifth system continues the musical development with two staves. The upper staff features a melodic line with slurs and ties, and the lower staff maintains the eighth-note accompaniment.

The sixth system begins with a measure number box containing the number '75'. It consists of two staves. The upper staff has a melodic line with slurs and ties, and the lower staff continues with the eighth-note accompaniment.

First system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a complex melodic line with many sixteenth notes and slurs. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and eighth notes.

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff has a more melodic and expressive line with slurs and accents. The bass staff continues with a steady accompaniment.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff features a series of chords and melodic fragments, while the bass staff has a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff has a melodic line with slurs and accents. The bass staff continues with a rhythmic accompaniment.

Fifth system of musical notation, starting with the measure number 76. The treble staff has a melodic line with slurs and accents. The bass staff continues with a rhythmic accompaniment.

Sixth system of musical notation. The treble staff has a melodic line with slurs and accents. The bass staff continues with a rhythmic accompaniment. A mf dynamic marking is present in the first measure.

First system of musical notation. The treble clef staff features a complex texture of sixteenth-note chords and arpeggios. The bass clef staff provides a steady accompaniment of eighth-note chords.

Second system of musical notation. The treble clef staff continues with intricate sixteenth-note patterns. The bass clef staff features a more active line with eighth-note chords and some melodic movement.

Third system of musical notation. The treble clef staff has a more sustained texture with longer note values and some slurs. The bass clef staff continues with eighth-note accompaniment.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff shows a mix of sixteenth-note runs and longer notes. The bass clef staff maintains the eighth-note accompaniment.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff features a series of sustained chords and longer note values. The bass clef staff continues with eighth-note accompaniment.

Sixth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff has a melodic line with some slurs and a tenuto marking above the final notes. The bass clef staff continues with eighth-note accompaniment.

Andante.

First system of the musical score. The right hand features a melodic line with a long slur over the first two measures. The left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is present in the first measure.

Second system of the musical score. The right hand continues the melodic line with a slur. The left hand accompaniment remains consistent.

Third system of the musical score. The right hand has a slur over the first two measures. The left hand accompaniment includes a dynamic marking of f (forte) in the third measure.

Fourth system of the musical score. The right hand has a slur over the first two measures. The left hand accompaniment includes dynamic markings of cresc. (crescendo) and dim. (diminuendo).

Fifth system of the musical score. The right hand has a slur over the first two measures. The left hand accompaniment includes dynamic markings of p and pp (pianissimo). The tempo marking rallent. (rallentando) is above the first measure, and a tempo is above the third measure.

Sixth system of the musical score. The right hand has a slur over the first two measures. The left hand accompaniment includes dynamic markings of perdendo (decrescendo), mf (mezzo-forte), and pp. A fermata is placed over the final note of the right hand.

 A - - - - - men!

te sé - jour!
 mel du ein.
 ial a - bode.

Les choristes doivent avoir soin de ne pas respirer ensemble aux mêmes endroits, afin qu'il n'y ait pas d'interruption apparente dans les sons.

 mel du ein.
 ial a - bode.

Die Choristen sind ersucht, nicht zu gleicher Zeit zusammen aufzuathmen, damit keine scheinbare Unterbrechung im Singen stattfindet.

te sé - jour!
 mel du ein.
 ial a - bode.

The members of the Choir must not all breathe at the same time, else the tones cannot be sustained as it is necessary they should be.

te sé - jour!
 mel du ein.
 ial a - bode.
