DINSDALES' MUSIC CATALOGUE. 2/- Editions.

- CAT. No. SONGS.
- 24. BECAUSE YOU STAY M. Lutzen.
Published in two keys, No. 1 in C (C to E); No. 2 in Eb (Eb to G). Moritz Lutzen's greatest composition, which has commanded attention of all music-lovers. It is a beautiful song; one that you will be pleased to sing and play at all times in any company.
- 28. THERE'S SOMEONE IN AUSTRALIA M. Lutzen
A beautiful sentimental song of Australia, made greatly popular by Miss Violet Lorraine, in "Puss in Boots" Pantomime.
- 36. THE SLEEPY PYJAMA GIRL T. Armstrong
A bewitching little song, sung by Miss Anna McNab in "Land of Nod." A song that appeals to everyone—so quaint and original.
- 43. IF I THOUGHT YOU LOVED ME Bennett Scott
One of London's very biggest successes. Introduced here by Miss Vera Rochdale. From the pen of London's most successful composer. A refrain you will not wish to forget.
- 6. CALL OF THE ANGRY DEEP M. Phillips
A First-class Baritone Song, Key E flat, range Bb to D. The story of a sailor's farewell, told in tender melody and dramatic harmonies—"His home, his sweetheart," "between love and duty," "the call of the angry deep." The wreck is depicted by a clever piece of composition both for voice and accompaniment, easy to sing and play, and sounding most effective in performance.
- 9. SALT-WATER JACK Chanter
For Bass or Baritone, Key G, range from G below to D. A jovial Song of the Sea and the Sailor—quite original—and different to other sailors' songs; easy to sing, with excellent and characteristic though easy accompaniment. After the style of "Three for Jack," etc. This song will become very popular with baritones and basses, and will be recommended by every music teacher.
- 10. WATCH BELOW, THE Naunton
For Baritone or Bass, Key C, range G below to C. The most unique and original baritone song on the jolly life at sea ever published. The words:—
"And gay is the watch below, below,
And gay is the watch below, hey ho!"
Are set to a jovial swing movement so truly descriptive of a seaman's jolly life below deck, that having once heard it sung or played, it haunts the ear, and one finds one's self unconsciously humming it.

SEA SONGS.

SACRED SONGS.

- 1. GATEWAY OF HEAVEN Naunton
A beautiful Semi-Sacred Song. A life story, the Cathedral, the Worshippers, the Prayer, Repentance, Ascension. The music of the two refrains, contrition and exaltation, contains the best and noblest thoughts of the cultured and emotional musician. The song is set in the popular form for high baritone, tenor, soprano and mezzo. Key C, range C below to E.
- 2. THE ANNIVERSARY HYMN Naunton
Semi-Sacred Song, Key G, range from D below to E. Optional note, high G. A Life Story—an original picture of the Schoolhouse, the Children's Anniversary Hymn, "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," exquisitely arranged; the aged man, his recollections of child life, the children's voices at the grave of his little one in the corner of the churchyard. Although the music of this song is in popular form, and suitable for all voices, it is a work of art, and the glorious strains of the grand double refrain leave an impression on the hearer not likely to be forgotten.
- 4. THE HYMNS MY MOTHER SANG TO ME M. Phillips
An already established success, a previous version having run through several editions. This is an entirely new and rich arrangement, accentuating the sweet melody, and making this one of the finest "Home Songs" obtainable, Key G, range from B below to E. For all voices, introducing in two grand refrains:—"Hold the Fort," "Rescue the Perishing," "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," "Beyond the Gates of Paradise," "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow," "Onward, Christian Soldiers," "Glory to God in the Highest."
- 5. DEATH IS KING Naunton
"Death is King" is absolutely the most effective and majestic Song for Bass, Baritone and Tenor ever created by poet or musician. For wisdom, strength and beauty of words and for grandeur and glory of music in the popular form, it is unparalleled. The subject, "Death," is presented by the poet-musician as the adored Peacemaker, the Monarch of Human Destiny, depicting with pomp and power in grand march tempo the triumphal victory of the most glorious, supremely mysterious and happiest of the creations of the King of Kings.

RAGTIME & POPULAR SONGS.

- 32. THE RAGTIME SOLDIER MAN Irving Berlin
A most successful Ragtime Song, by the famous composer of "Alexander's Ragtime Band," and other huge successes.
- 33. THE GHOST OF THE VIOLIN Ted Snyder
Considered the most clever and original of all Ragtime songs. A fine song and a brilliant and effective piano solo.
- 34. STOP! STOP! STOP! Irving Berlin
Another of Berlin's Ragtime Masterpieces. Stop! Stop!! Stop!!! Stop!!!! Don't dare to stop: Come over and love me some more."
- 35. MENDELSSOHN'S MESMERISING TUNE Irving Berlin
An exceedingly pretty Ragtime Melody, leading itself to easy and effective harmony. Delightful to play and sing.
- 37. THE WRIGGLEY RAG David and Arthurs
One of the biggest successes in the "Forty Thieves" Pantomime, sung by Mr. Edwin Brett. Its originality and fine two-step melody has made it an undoubted success.
- 38. CHRYSANTHEMUMS David and Arthurs
The name is sufficient. The song is a "scream," whether sung or played. A clever song, sung by a clever comedian, Mr. Barry Lapino, in "Forty Thieves" Pantomime.
- 39. DO THEY ALL GO TO SEE THE SEA? Pelham & Long
Miss Daisy Jerome asked this question nightly in "Come Over Here" Revue, and thousands of people bought the song to find the answer.
- 40. POPSY WOPSY Bennett Scott
The success of the London season. An ear-haunting infectious melody. Sung by Miss Daisy Jerome in "Come Over Here."
- 41. HEY HO! CAN'T YOU HEAR THE STEAMER! Godfrey
The greatest Ragtime Song since the famous "Robert E. Lee." A splendid number, sung by Miss Dorothy Firmin in "Forty Thieves" Pantomime.
- 44. MY BRUDDA SYLVEST F. Fischer
Everyone knows this great American "Dago" song. A huge success everywhere. The most original song of recent years.

PIANO SOLOS.

- 42. SWEDISH LAKE SONG M. Lutzen
This gifted composer has already made a name for himself with his original and beautiful melodies, and surely none is greater than this fine work.
- 31. GRIZZLEY BEAR RAG Ted Snyder
This is the original "Grizzley Bear" Rag, as played for the famous dance all over America. It needs no further introduction.
- 30. BLUE BUTTERFLY WALTZ K. L. Duffield
A Waltz of a very high order; recommended to all lovers of good music. Calls for admiration and a place in every home.
- 29. STAR OF THE EAST WALTZ J. E. F. d'
A beautiful Waltz of very high merit. Being in sympathy with its title, the music of this Waltz is rather of the grave nature, carrying, as it were, a sacred solemnity right through its pages, which is coupled with pleasing harmony of a most impressive nature.
- 27. MASHONA SHUFFLE (Piano Rag) M. Lutzen
A happy, brilliant Piano Rag, full of originality and charm. Whilst being termed a "Rag," it is also a piano solo of high merit.
- 26. JE VOUS ADORE (I adore you) M. Lutzen
This artistic piano solo is rapidly becoming one of the finest musical gems published for years. The rich and, withal, tender melody, with its quaint and fascinating harmonies, reveals the inspiration of genius, the moulding of musical thought by a master musician, yet preserving in its entirety that simplicity and delicate charm that is always evident in successful works.
- 22. MY LADY DAINY INTERMEZZO E. Hesse
A fine, effective Piano Solo, making a splendid Schottische. Is now an established favorite.
- 21. PIGTAILS AND CHOPSTICKS TWO-STEP E. Hesse
Quite as original and amusing a Piano Solo as the popular "Policeman's Holiday." A quaint two-step.
- 13. LOVE'S RHAPSODY INTERMEZZO
A beautiful Piano Solo. A reverie, an inspiration, an inspiration, an inspiration. Not effective.
- 8. MEMORIES OF THEE WALTZ
One of the Waltzes of the fine old stand, that cultured musicians will play and admirers will delight to listen to, and a gem for the stage.
- 3. UNDER THE UNION JACK MARCH
A magnificent British March, full of spirit, brilliant but not difficult, depicting and fearless grit of the Anglo-Saxon.
