

66 A DOLEFUL BALLAD999

ONE OF THE "OLDEN TIME."

Arranged for the Plane Forte,

BY CHARLES GOSSIN.

New York:

PUBLISHED AT ATWILL'S MUSIC REPOSITORY.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year of our Lord 1844, by Joseph F. Atwill, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

WONDERFUL SONG

of

"OVER THERE"

NEW YORK, Published by ATWILL, 201 Breadway.

there!

Oh! the candles they are small
Over there!
Oh! the candles they are small
Over there!
Oh! the candles they are small,
For they dips 'em lean and tall
And then burns 'em sticks and all
Over there!

3

Oh! I wish I was a geese,
All forlorn!

Oh! I wish I was a geese,

All forlorn!

Oh! I wish I was a geese,
'Cause they lives and dies in peace
And accumulates much grease
Eating corn!

4

Oh! they had a clam pie
Over there!

Oh! they had a clam pie Over there!

Oh! they had a clam pie,

And the crust was made of rye—

You must eat it! or must die,

Over there!