What Do You Want To Make Those Eyes At Me For?

"It's a whale!" "It's one big smash!" "It's a hum-dinger of a song!" This is what Broadway thinks of the lively song sensation now being sung by Henry Lewis in Anna Held's new musical show, "Follow Me." It's the snappiest "Eye-Song" ever written. Get a copy today and start something in your town. Words and music by McCarthy, Johnson and Monaco

I Met You, Dear, In Dreamland

Once in a blue moon (maybe) you run across a little peach of a song that hits you between the eyes and warms the cockles of your heart. Here's the song! It's a real love ballad with just the right sentiment and melody that charms. Its dreamy waltz-time is irresistible. Words and music by Lew Berk.

Chorus What Do You Want To Make Those Eyes At Me For?

So, what do you want to make those eyes at me for, When they don't mean what they say? They make me glad, They make me sad, They make me want a lot of things I've never had So what do you want to fool a-round with me for? You lead me on, and then you run a way, — But,

Refrain with expression I Met You Dear In Dreamland

I met you dear in dream-land. Down in a gold-en lane, Come with me dear to love-land Where true love nev-er can wane, — Meet me a-mong the roo-es, Un-der the skies of blue, — Meet me to-night with your
