Fire Drill.

March—Two Step.

HARRY J. LINCOLN.

Composer of { "HEAVEN'S ARTILLERY" March,
"A SOUTHERN DREAM" Waltzes,
"A DREAM OF THE SOUTH" Waltzes,
"ANGELS OF NIGHT" Barcarole,
"MOSS BONE" Morceau, etc.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The key signature has one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 2/4. The music begins with a forte (ff) dynamic marking. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, while the bass clef provides a steady accompaniment of chords and single notes.

The second system continues the piece. It features a variety of chordal textures in both staves, with some triplets and sixteenth-note patterns in the treble. The bass line remains consistent with the first system.

The third system shows further development of the musical themes. The treble clef has more melodic movement, including some slurs and ties, while the bass clef continues to support the harmonic structure.

The fourth system includes some more complex rhythmic patterns, such as triplets in the bass clef. The overall texture remains clear and rhythmic.

The fifth and final system concludes the piece. It features a final cadence with sustained chords in both staves, ending with a repeat sign.

TRIO.
