

COPYRIGHT 1893
318

Respectfully Dedicated to MY MOTHER.

O! tell me where does Cupid Dwell?

Song and Chorus

Words and Music by

Miss Emma M. Kenzie.

Op. 1.

DETROIT, MICH.
C. J. WHITNEY, No. 40 FORT ST. WEST.
Publisher and Importer

3

Copyright 1893 by Emma M. Kenzie

O TELL ME WHERE DOES CUPID DWELL?

SONG AND CHORUS.

Words and Music by

Miss EMMA M^c KENZIE.

Moderato.

Con gusto.

1. O tell me where does cu - - pid dwell,

2. He draws his bow with ease..... and grace, Sends

3. His ar - rows are all..... soft - en'd,

In the green - - wood, in the dell, ev - - 'ry ar - - row to its place, He

They would not hurt a dove; He f

In the pal - ace, in the cot, A - mong the does it not in an an - gry way, But laughs with makes these gay young bach - e - lors Fall

p

sweet for - get - me - not, O tell me where this love is joy to see it stay, He does it not in an an - gry deep - ly in love, They feign un - moved, yet we can not, O tell me where he is not. O tell me way, But laughs with joy to see it stay. O tell me prove, How sore - ly they are smit - ten. O tell me where this love is not? O tell me where he is not?

CHORUS.

Sopr.  O what would this world be with- out love, with- out love, what would it be, O

Alto

Tenor  O what would this world be with- out love, with- out love, what would it be, O

Bass

 what would this world be with- out love, What would it be.....with- out..... love.

 what would this world be with- out love, What would it be with- out love.

