Dear Test Executive User:

Thank you for purchasing a run-time license for your LabVIEW™ or LabWindows/CVI™ Test Executive application. The enclosed document is the legal documentation that allows you to distribute your Test Executive application to a target computer. Please keep this document in a safe place.

If you are using the LabWindows/CVI Test Executive, you can build an executable from your test executive project in LabWindows/CVI. If you are using the LabVIEW Test Executive, you will find instructions for building and distributing the Test Executive Run-Time System, in Chapter 6, Deploying the Test Executive, of the LabVIEW Test Executive Reference Manual.

Thank you for choosing our products for your test software needs.
