

LOGGER SOFT FRONT PANEL

Features and Limitations

Logger Soft Front Panel is a version of National Instruments VI Logger with limited functionality included with 435X boards. The lists below detail the functionality and limitations of Logger Soft Front Panel.

You can use Logger Soft Front Panel to

- create a virtual channel
- create a task
- run and stop a task
- view historical data
- export data

You can use VI Logger to

- trigger acquisition and logging
- detect events
- publish data
- use calculated channels
- use LabVIEW connectivity
- use LabWindows/CVI connectivity
- duplicate a task
- export a task

To obtain all of the features and capabilities of VI Logger, visit ni.com and order part number 778389-03.