

DISCONTINUATION OF THE IMAQ™ A2504 CABLE

NOTE TO USERS

National Instruments is discontinuing the IMAQ A2504 cable. You must place your order for this cable by September 15, 2002, and accept delivery by September 31, 2002.

Important Dates

---

Final Order:           September 15, 2002
Final Delivery:       September 31, 2002

IMAQ A2504 cable quantities are limited. You must submit lifetime buy orders by September 15, 2002, after which the cable will no longer be available. Please account for attrition of your current product when calculating your lifetime buy quantities.

Alternative Solution

National Instruments offers the IMAQ A6804 cable (187805-01), for use with the IMAQ 1409 image acquisition device, as a high-quality alternative to the IMAQ A2504 cable. The IMAQ A6804 provides four bus connectors to three video signals and one trigger line.
